

MISSING CHILD PROCEDURE

Educators have a duty of care to ensure children are supervised at all times, maintaining safe and secure environments whilst adhering to Education and Care Services National Law and National Regulations. Supervision, together with thoughtful design and arrangement of children's environments, assists in the prevention and severity of injury to children.

Educators are to follow the Supervision Policy and conduct regular attendance monitoring throughout the day to ensure all children are accounted for at all times of the day where education and care is provided. Working in conjunction with the Supervision Policy and Arrival and Departure Policy, this procedure provides detailed steps for educators to follow if a child appears missing or unaccounted for while attending our Service.

IMPORTANT: Although researched the steps listed below are a guide only. Please ensure you adjust to your own circumstances and physical environment and then assess these before application in your Service.

Education and Care Services National Law or Regulations (R. 12, 99, 101, 115, 121, 122 and 168) NQS QA 2: Element 2.1.2 and 2.2.2 Health practices and procedures
